* This includes 91,100 miles for 1888, 87,372 miles for 1889, and 102,283 miles for 1890, on Silverton tramway. As the company's permanent way was maintained by themselves, the calculations respecting maintenance are based on South Australian railway train mileage only; but all other train mileage calculations include the Silverton tramway mileage.

N.B.—The reason of so few discharges of bills of sale, &c., being registered is mainly owing to the difficulty of proving the certificate of satisfaction as required by the Act (No. 8 of 5th Vic.), viz., the acknowledgment by the mortgagee of his signature to the certificate of satisfaction or proof of execution by said mortgagee by one of two witnesses upon affidavit before the Registrar-General or his deputy. For this reason the greater portion are allowed to lapse.

* The great increase in the number is partly owing to the fact that Hire Agreements, Mortgages of Stock and Liens and Settlements are included.

* Loan raised by Colonisation Commissioners. † Aid from Imperial Government. ‡ Aid to Revenue by issue of Bonds and Treasury Bills.
§ Immigration ceased in these years.

NOTE.—Prior to 1851, all remittances to the Land and Emigration Commissioners were carried to account by the Colonial Treasurer as sums expended on immigration, and the receipts in England by the Land and Emigration Commissioners were never included in the accounts of the Colony—an adjustment of accounts was, however, made in the year 1853.

Reading-room (newspapers and periodicals) in the Institute Building.

The Reading-room contains all the South Australian newspapers, several of the leading newspapers from each of the other Australian colonies, and various English, Irish, and Scotch newspapers; also most of the best English periodicals.

The attendance cannot be given, as there are no means of registering it, but there is little doubt that it is greater than that in any other department of the institution.

Note.—The different departments are open to the public during the following hours, viz.:—

Public Library—Week days, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Museum (Summer)—Week days, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.
(Winter)—Week days, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

* The inmates comprised in this return may be classed as follows, namely—Aged and infirm, sick and deserted children. No able-bodied person is at any time admitted into the Destitute Asylum.

† All the male adults specified in this return were relieved in consequence of sickness, on a medical certificate. Many of the females received out-door relief from similar causes. The remainder, with the whole of the children enumerated in the table, were relieved in consequence either of the death of the husband, or the desertion of the family by the husband, or the absence of husband in search of employment, or during husband's incarceration.

‡ These numbers include the relief granted in country districts through the auxiliary boards, which are not included in any previous year in the above returns.

‖ Exclusive of children under control of State Children's Council, which are included in previous years.

Note.—The numbers under the different nationalities in the Out-door are only approximate.

[1] The areas here given, except in the case of New Zealand, are the results of planimetrical calculations made in the office of the Surveyor-General, Melbourne. Except in the case of Western Australia, the area of which differs from the official estimate by 84,000 square miles, these results agree closely with the figures furnished officially by the various colonies. The latest official statement of the area of New Zealand, including all islands, is 104,471 square miles. See also Victorian Year-Book, 1889-90, Vol. I., page 6.

[2] The populations in all the colonies have been corrected in accordance with the results of the census taken on 5th April, 1891. The figures for Queensland and Western Australia have been estimated in the office of the Government Statist of Victoria. On the 30th September, 1891, the estimated population of Victoria was 1,153,481, viz., 603,730 males and 549,751 females; that of South Australia, 318,049; and on the 30th June that of New Zealand was 626,830.

[3] The population of South Australia is inclusive of that of the Northern Territory, viz., 4,610 males, 340 females, total 4,950, on 31st December; and 4,585 males, 340 females, total 4,925, mean for year. These numbers are estimated from the numbers returned at the census of 5th April, 1891, as follows:—Males 4,615, females 343, total 4,958. In subsequent tables, however, the Northern Territory is, as a rule, not included.

[4] Maoris are not included. On the 5th April, 1891, these numbered 41,523, viz., 22,633 males and 18,890 females.

[1] The numbers in these two columns doubled give the total number of persons married and the number married in proportion to every thousand of the mean population.

[2] In calculating these results the mean populations shown in the last column of Table I. have been used, except in the case of South Australia, from the population of which that of the Northern Territory has been deducted.

NOTE.—The Immigration and Emigration in this table is by sea only.

[1] The figures in these columns generally understate the truth. Many persons leave the colonies by sea without their departure being noted. It is stated, however, that in New Zealand a complete account is now kept.

[2] In consequence of the Emigration returns being defective, as stated in the last footnote, the figures in these columns are too high, except where the minus sign (−) appears indicating that the emigrants exceeded the immigrants by the number against which it is placed, when the figures are too low.

[3] According to Imperial returns, the number of persons who left the United Kingdom for the Australasian colonies in 1890 was 21,570, and the number who returned to the United Kingdom from these colonies was 10,385. The excess in favour of departures was thus 11,185, or little more than one-fifth of the excess of immigrants over emigrants shown in the table.

NOTE.—The figures of revenue and expenditure for Victoria are for the twelve months ended 30th June, but those for the other colonies are for the calendar year. Refunds of revenue, drawbacks, and such similar entries, are rigidly excluded from the accounts of revenue and expenditure of Victoria and New Zealand, but are included in those of New South Wales and Queensland, also in those of some of the other colonies. See also Note 5.

[1] The amounts in this column are made up of Excise duties, including licences imposed for revenue purposes; duties on bank notes; stamps, other than those for fees of office; legacy, succession, and probate duties; property and income taxes; and any other impost, payable to the General Government, levied distinctly as a tax; but excluding fees, and charges for special services rendered.

[2] The figures for Victoria during the year ended 30th June, 1891, were as follow:—Revenue from Customs, £2,525,571; other taxes, £727,069 (partly estimated); from Crown lands, £613,068; from Railways, £3,306,580; from Post and Telegraphs, £499,506 (estimated); from other sources, £671,794—Total revenue, £8,343,588. The estimated mean population of the same period was 1,133,266; therefore the revenue per head was £7 7s. 3d.; and the taxation per head was about £2 17s. 5d.

[3] The proportion of the revenue of Victoria and New Zealand derived from "Other Taxes" and "Post and Telegraphs" has been roughly estimated, there being no means of obtaining the exact figures.

[4] Inclusive of tramways, £277,777; but exclusive of revenue collected for Victoria for traffic beyond Albury, &c., £10,193.

[5] Including revenue returned to the extent of at least £195,283—viz., £20,686, being repayments to credit of votes; £31,918, for drawbacks and refunds of duty; £10,193, railway revenue collected for the Victorian Government, &c.; and about £132,486, being other revenue returned, &c.

[6] Inclusive of revenue from gold-fields, £17,616.

[7] In calculating the amounts for Victoria the mean population during the year 1889-90 (1,103,727) has been taken. For the other colonies, the figures of mean population shown in the last column of Table I. have been used.

NOTE.—For periods to which the figures relate in each colony; also for remarks in reference to the practice of swelling the returns of some of the colonies by including refunds of revenue, &c., on both sides of the account, see Note to last table.

[1] According to the Treasurer's Finance statement the expenditure of Victoria for the year 1890-91 was as follows:—Railways, £2,469,800; Post and Telegraphs, £744,096; Interest, &c., on Public Debt, £1,646,884; Other Services, £4,267,919; Total Expenditure, £9,128,699.

[2] Inclusive of Tramways, £164,032.

[3] See footnote (5) to last table. Treasury Bills repaid, £150,000, are not included.

[4] Interest only.

[5] Exclusive of charges for the sinking fund, (viz., £288,000) formerly charged to revenue, but now met by debentures raised for the purpose.

[6] In calculating the amounts for Victoria, the mean population during the year 1889-90 (1,103,727) has been taken. For the other colonies the figures of mean population shown in the last column of Table I. have been used.

NOTE.—The amounts set down are inclusive of Treasury Bills, viz. :—£2,373,884 for New South Wales, £750,000 for South Australia, and £403,850 for Tasmania. The figures for New Zealand relate to the 31st March, 1891. On the 30th June, 1891, the Public Debt of Victoria was £43,610,265. The estimated population at that date was 1,146,911, and the revenue of the financial year ended with that date was £8,343,588 The debt was thus equal to £38 0s. 7d. per head, or to 5·23 years' revenue. Moreover, since the end of 1890, New South Wales has increased her debt by £150,000; Queensland by £2,500,000; South Australia by £481,800; Western Australia by £250,000; and Tasmania by £287,150.

* Including the Northern Territory.

[1] Included with other public works.

[2] Including £1,265,588, loans to local bodies, chiefly for Waterworks, Roads and Bridges.

[3] Including other buildings.

[4] The amount for Roads and Bridges is included with that for Harbors, &c.

[5] The figures set down as showing the objects for which the Public Debt of New Zealand was contracted represent the net expenditure out of the "Public Works Fund" since 1870—the date of the first Immigration and Public Works Loan—which is the only existing record of the loan expenditure; it is however stated that, besides loan moneys, receipts in aid from Stamp duties, &c., contributed somewhat towards the total sum so expended. The balance required to make up the total debt at the end of 1890 has been entered as "Unapportioned."

[6] In New Zealand, a portion of the expenditure on "Defences" is included under the head of "Harbors," &c., and a portion is under the head of "Unapportioned."

[7] In New South Wales, the amount under this head was expended on public works on behalf of Queensland when it formed part of New South Wales; in South Australia on general public works for the Northern Territory; in New Zealand on land purchases (presumably from the Maoris), £1,196,479 and rates on native lands, £58,014, &c. From the amount returned for Tasmania, debentures redeemed, amounting to £99,800, have been deducted, since the purposes were not specified for which the original loans thereby paid off were raised.

[8] Consisting chiefly of unexpended balances.

[9] As a set-off against the public debt, New Zealand possessed an accrued sinking fund amounting, on the 31st March, 1891, to £1,473,193; the net liability of that colony was, therefore, £37,359,157, or £59 14s. 6d. per head of population, equal to 9 times the revenue. The sinking funds possessed by the other colonies are comparatively small, consisting of the following amounts:—Victoria, £156,000; Western Australia, £85,106; Tasmania, £124,804.

[10] In calculating these results, the populations on the 31st December shown in the fifth column of Table I. have been used.

[11] In calculating these results, the figures of public revenue given in Table IV. have been used.

[12] Treasury bills.

[13] Consisting of amounts spent out of the old provincial loans of New Zealand, prior to the abolition of provinces in 1876, loans not accounted for, and the unspent balances of loan moneys; also £1,021,472 for charges and expenses of raising loans. No particulars of the purposes to which the former were applied are available.

NOTE.—The figures for all the colonies, except Western Australia, Tasmania, and New Zealand, relate to the year ended 30th June, 1890; those for the two former being for the calendar year 1890, and those for the latter for the year ended 31st March, 1891.

[1] The amounts included in these columns generally represent the actual expenditure on construction, irrespective of the cost of floating loans, and without regard to the deficiencies below or premiums received above the nominal amount of loans for railway purposes as contracted by the different colonies.

[2] Including £71,032, which, although not actually received, is credited for non-paying traffic, viz., £66,314 under "Coaching" and £4,718 under "Goods,"—£46,373 being for services rendered to the Post and Telegraph Department.

[3] Exclusive of Palmerston Line, Northern Territory, 146 miles, on a 3ft. 6in. gauge, opened for traffic on the 1st October, 1889. The returns for the nine months were as follow:—Cost (including interest during construction and expenses of floating loans), £1,081,480; working expenses £14,880, or £1,943 in excess of gross receipts; number of passengers, 4,567; goods and live stock, 2,120 tons; train mileage, 28,446; rolling-stock, 147 (including 7 locomotives). Of the receipts for South Australia (Proper), as much as £383,681 was derived from the Broken Hill line.

[4] Including the Tasmanian Main Line, 122 miles, from the 1st October, 1890, when it was obtained by the Government at a total cost (including purchase money, expenses of litigation, &c.) of £1,135,968. The returns for this line, therefore, relate to only three months, during which period the gross earnings were £23,279, working expenses £16,508, and net earnings £6,771. For the whole year, however, the gross earnings amounted to £87,308, the working expenses to £82,481, and the net earnings to £4,827.

[5] This is the midland railway, constructed on the land grant principle.

[6] Including compensation, paid as follows:—Victoria, £26,718; New South Wales, £10,885.

[7] The calculations in this column are based on the average capital cost, as follows:—Victoria, £30,857,000; New South Wales, £30,197,100; Queensland, £13,488,800; South Australia, £10,234,750; Western Australia, £900,320; Tasmania, £1,941,100; New Zealand, £14,089,270.

[8] In these cases the proportion chargeable to Locomotive Power and Carriages and Waggons respectively have been estimated.

[9] The minus sign (−) indicates a net loss, or excess of working expenses over receipts.

[10] The number of passenger journeys have been carefully computed for all the colonies (except Western Australia) on the following uniform basis:—There has been allowed 720 journeys for each yearly, 360 for each half-yearly, 180 for each quarterly, 60 for each monthly, 2 for each return, and 1 for each single ticket issued to adults and youths; and one-half of those numbers respectively for tickets issued to boys and girls. No allowance has been made for free passes issued, nor have 533,790 free journeys made by school children in New Zealand been included; whilst the figures for South Australia are also exclusive of journeys on yearly and half-yearly contract tickets available for all lines. The numbers given differ in many cases from those returned by the various colonies, which are not compiled in a uniform manner. From the Victorian Railway figures 12,107,144, added for journeys on single tickets over more than one system, have been deducted. In comparing the traffic in Victoria and New South Wales the large metropolitan tramway traffic in these colonies must also be taken into account.

[11] Exclusive of live stock.

* Including Passengers, Parcels, Horses, Carriages and Dogs, Mails, Rents, and Miscellaneous.

† Exclusive of Western Australia, for which the figures were not available.

Private Railways.—In addition to Government lines, there were also private lines, as follow, in the colonies named:—New South Wales, 81 miles; South Australia, 18; Western Australia, 326; Tasmania, 48; New Zealand, 114 miles.

Tramways.—These are not included in the foregoing table. On the 30th June, 1891, there were 45½ miles of street tramways (chiefly cable) in Victoria, constructed by a municipal trust at a cost of £1,588,706, but leased to a company, which works the lines, the receipts from which in 1890–91 amounted to £562,540, and the passengers carried numbered 48,045,000; in New South Wales, 42½ miles of street tramways (chiefly steam) constructed by the Government at a cost of £1,004,212, the gross receipts for the year being £292,850, the working expenses £239,679, and the estimated number of passengers carried (allowing 2¾d. for each) 22,033,000; in Queensland, 23½ miles, including 8¼ of street lines; and in Western Australia 8 miles of Government lines, and about 100 constructed by timber companies. There are other lines in the colonies named, but of less importance.

Railways, 1890–91.—The following are later particulars for some of the colonies:—

NOTE.—The Postal returns do not appear to have been previously compiled in a uniform manner. Great care has, however, been taken on the present occasion to render the figures as comparative as possible. The numbers given for newspapers and packets represent those posted in the colony (counted once—some colonies having previously counted them twice), added to those received from abroad. Owing to the difficulties of distinguishing telegraphic from postal revenue and expenditure, they are now, for the first time in these Statistics, shown in a combined form.

[1] Subject to certain regulations and restrictions, newspapers posted in New South Wales, Queensland, and Tasmania travel free to any of the Australasian Colonies, and in Western Australia they travel free to places within the colony itself. In the other colonies a small postage fee is charged on newspapers.

[2] Including commission on money orders. The revenue for New South Wales includes £25,477 for postage on letters, and £22,195 for telegrams, O.H.M.S; but the values of Government correspondence, apparently not charged for in the case of some of the other colonies, were as follow:—Victoria, about £64,000 for letters, and £5,891 for telegrams; Queensland, £46,342 for telegrams; New Zealand, £83,000 for letters, and £26,071 for telegrams. In other cases the information was not available.

[3] Exclusive of interest on Savings' Banks Deposits.

[4] The revenue is made up of Postal revenue (roughly estimated), £290,000; Parcels Post, £8,238; and commission on money orders, £14,263. The expenditure includes cost of printing books, forms, and stamps by the Government Printer; but is exclusive of expenditure on buildings and on construction and maintenance of telegraph lines, which, it is believed, is also excluded in the case of all the other colonies.

[5] There are also 325 receiving offices.

NOTE.—The form of this Table differs from that adopted in previous years, as it has been discovered that the particulars previously furnished by the different colonies were not strictly comparable. The extent open now embraces, besides cables worked by companies, not only lines under the control of the Postal Department, but also those managed by the Railway authorities, which, although largely availed of by the public, were not in all cases taken into account. According to the plan followed by the Victorian Postal authorities, the telegrams refer to those transmitted only, those received from places outside each colony being excluded. It is questionable, however, whether it would not be better to uniformly include those received from abroad in all the colonies. An attempt has been made, which is only partially successful, to separate telephone from telegraph lines, and to show the extent to which telephones are employed in the various colonies.

* Where asterisks occur, the information has not been furnished or is incomplete.

[1] Including miles of Railway Telegraphs, as follow:—Victoria—line 2,958, wire 4,779; New South Wales—line 2,182 (the lines belong to Postal Department); Queensland, length not stated; South Australia—line 107, wire 1,942; Western Australia—length not stated; Tasmania—line 362, wire 417. Telephone line and wire are excluded, except in the case of New South Wales. Cables worked by public companies are included, as follow:—Tasmania, 359 miles; New Zealand, 202 miles.

[2] Including 794 miles, used solely for railway purposes.

[3] Included with telegraph wire.

[4] Including international telegrams of other colonies, viz., 28,834 outward, and 27,803 inward telegrams.

[5] In the case of South Australia the telegraph revenue includes telephone revenue.

[6] Exclusive of business of Cable Company.

[1] These areas differ from those officially furnished in many cases. See note (i) to Table I., ante.

[2] The purchase money for selected land varies in the different colonies from 10s to 30s. per acre, payable by annual instalments (generally without interest) extending over a period of 10 or 20 years. For particulars of the terms and conditions under which such land is acquired, see Victorian Year-Book 1890-91, Vol. II., under the head of "Production."

[3] Land alienated in fee-simple only. See also footnote (9) infra.

[4] This low average is explained by the circumstance that a large portion of the purchase money was previously paid as rent. The price of rural land is 10s. per acre.

[5] Chiefly Great Southern Railway grant.

[6] Of this area 28,815 acres were granted to natives, or Europeans who purchased from them, under Native Land Acts.

[7] Including only that of which the purchase has been completed.

[8] Exclusive of the extent estimated to have been forfeited for non-fulfilment of conditions, &c., except in the case of Western Australia.

[9] Including land held under leases with right of purchase on certain conditions, viz., 1,270,492 acres in Queensland, and over 1,313,000 acres in South Australia.

[10] These figures relate partly to lands in respect to which Crown Grants have been issued either to the original Maori possessors, or to Europeans or Maoris who have purchased from them, under certain Native Land Acts.

[11] Of this extent, about 14,000,000 acres belong to the Maoris, or to Europeans who have purchased from them; and 798,571 acres were held under "Perpetual Lease."

NOTE.—The State system of education is compulsory and undenominational (or secular) in all the colonies, and Western Australia is now the only colony which grants assistance to denominational schools. Public instruction is free in Victoria, Queensland, and New Zealand; but fees are charged in the other colonies, although they are partially or entirely remitted in cases where the parents are unable to pay them. The prescribed school age differs in the various colonies—In Victoria it is from 6 to 13 years; in New South Wales and Western Australia, from 6 to 14; in Queensland, from 6 to 12; in South Australia, Tasmania, and New Zealand, from 7 to 13. For further particulars relating to the educational systems of the various colonies, see Victorian Year-Book 1890–91, Vol. II.

[1] These figures have been estimated in the office of the Government Statist, Melbourne.

[2] Including 19 assisted schools.

[3] This represents the cost of State (Primary) Education, including expenditure on Head Office, staff, and inspection, but exclusive only of expenditure on buildings (either for repairs or erection) and rent. In the case of New Zealand, however, rent is included, as the amount could not be ascertained.

[4] Portion of the amounts in this column are derived from Education Reserves, &c., viz., about £10,400 in South Australia, and £33,772 in New Zealand.

[5] For extra subjects.

[6] Exclusive of amounts received by assisted schools, which were not returned.

[7] In Government schools only. The average amount also paid by the State to assisted schools was £1 7s. 7½d.

[8] In the figures for New Zealand, amounts received by Boards from local sources, and sums raised locally by School Committees are also included.

NOTE.—Land in fallow is included in the total area under tillage in all the colonies; but land under permanent artificial grasses is not included in Queensland, Western Australia, and New Zealand. See also Notes 2, 3, and 6.

[1] Including beans and pease, except in the case of New South Wales.

[2] In addition to crops sown for the purpose of being cut green for cattle, this column contains the following areas laid down in permanent artificial grass in the colonies named:—

Permanent Artificial Grass.

	Acres.
Victoria	235,241
New South Wales	385,504
South Australia	(about) 30,000
Western Australia	Only small area.
Tasmania	201,060

In Queensland, where it is not so included, the area returned is 22,252 acres. For extent of such land in New Zealand, see Note 6.

[3] In the returns of some of the colonies, this column embraces land in fallow as well as land under crop. The following are the areas in fallow included in the returns of such colonies:—

Land in Fallow.

[4] Rice, 300, and Rye, 169 acres.

[5] No account taken.

[6] In the figures for New Zealand, the land under permanent artificial grass, amounting to 6,922,173 acres—of which about one-half had been, and the other half had not been, previously ploughed—is not entered as green forage, nor is it included in the total area under tillage, as in the majority of the other colonies. Were the whole so placed, it would bring the land under tillage up to 8,558,352 acres, or to 13·68 acres per head of the population. The green forage entered above consists of 203,694 acres of green oats, 402,184 acres of turnips, and 1,817 acres of green maize.

[1] These figures are made up of the sum of the total quantities exported from and used for manufactures in, less the quantities imported by, the respective colonies. The wool referred to is, of course, not homogeneous in quality, some being greasy and some washed and scoured. The Government Statistician of New South Wales has estimated that the equivalent weight in greasy wool of the whole clip for that colony was 262,973,047 lbs.

[2] Estimated.

[3] Since closing the accounts for 1890, returns have been received of the export of 2,656,252 lbs. valued (9d. per lb.) at £99,609, of the wool clip for the same year which will be carried to account in the returns for 1891.

NOTE.—The figures for Victoria, New South Wales, and Queensland express the quantity and value of all the gold known to have been raised in those colonies since the period of its first discovery in Australia in 1851; those for South Australia are estimated chiefly from the returns of the Melbourne and Sydney Mints, and partly from the export returns; those for New Zealand express the total exports of gold from the earliest period; and those for Tasmania express the quantity known to have been raised since 1866, there being no record of the gold raised prior to that period. There being no reliable returns of the gold raised in Western Australia, the yield prior to 1889 has been estimated roughly at 100,000 oz., to which have been added the quantities which have since appeared in the export returns of the colony, which, however, are admittedly very defective.

[1] The purity, and consequently the value, of gold varies considerably in different localities. In Victoria the average value is set down as £4 per oz., and in Queensland as £3 10s. per oz. Standard gold (i.e. 22 carats fine) is worth £3 17s. 10½d., and pure gold £4 4s. 11½d. per oz.

[2] Including Northern Territory.

[3] Quantity declared for export only.

NOTE.—There are both Post Office and General Savings Banks in Victoria, New South Wales, Tasmania, and New Zealand; Post Office Savings Banks only in Queensland and Western Australia; and General Savings Banks only in South Australia. There is a limit to the amount of an interest-bearing deposit, varying from £100 to £250 in the different colonies. When two rates of interest are quoted, the lower one is that allowed by the Post Office Banks.

[1] This rate is allowed on deposits up to £200; above that amount, nil.

APPENDICES.

APPENDIX A.

STATISTICS OF FIJI, 1878 TO 1890.

 Fiji consists of from 70 to 80 inhabited islands, the estimated area of which is 7,500 square miles. There are also about 150 smaller islands uninhabited. The total area of the group is estimated to be 7,740 square miles.

NOTE.—The following additional information has been supplied for the year 1890:—Birth rate, 29·33; Death rate, 32·10; Marriage rate, 15·67, per 1,000 persons living. Immigration—Unassisted (not included above), 482 in 1888, 752 in 1889, and 456 in 1890. Emigration, 419. Sources of Revenue—Customs duties, £26,158; other taxes, £20,770; other sources, £19,889. Heads of Expenditure—Interest on public debt, £8,761; Post Office, &c., £900; Immigration, £6,127; other expenditure, £45,038. Public Debt—Consists of £115,390 Imperial advances, bearing no interest, in aid of annexation, and in payment of compensation in respect of disallowed land claims; £100,000 for payment of liabilities of former so-called Government; and £50,000 for public works and immigration, less £16,400 redeemed, bearing interest at 4½ per cent. Imports and Exports—Of the total value of imports, £189,114 was from the Australasian Colonies, and £17,643 from other countries; and of the total value of exports, £332,322 was to Australasian Colonies, and £32,211 to other countries; almost the whole of the exports were of Fijian production. Postal Returns, 1889—Number of offices, 38; letters, 262,006; newspapers, 227,868. State Education—Number of schools, 3; teachers, 6, viz., 4 males and 2 females; scholars on the rolls, 216, viz., 140 males and 76 females. Agriculture—Land under cultivation (by whites only), 35,400 acres, of which 300 acres were under maize; 18,500 acres under cocoanuts; 12,900 acres under sugar-cane; 2,400 acres under bananas; and 1,300 acres under cotton, coffee, tobacco, tapioca, pineapples, and other crops.

[1] The total area alienated at the end of 1890 was 413,440 acres, and the area unalienated 4,540,520 acres. The amount realized by the State for sales of land to the end of 1888 was only £26,446, which, however, represents the price of but a small proportion of the acreage alienated. The majority of the grants issued were for lands acquired by whites and others previously to annexation, and these received their titles at the nominal price of One shilling.

[2] In addition to the live stock referred to in these columns, about 5,000 angora goats were kept on the islands.

[3] Returns from Europeans only since 1886

NOTES.—On 4th September, 1888, Sir William Macgregor, K.C.M.G., Her Majesty's Administrator of the Government of British New Guinea, read at Port Moresby a Proclamation declaring that the following territory and islands thereby became part of the Queen's Dominions, namely:—"The southern and south-eastern shores of New Guinea, from the 141st meridian of east longitude eastward as far as East Cape; and thence north-westward as far as the 8th parallel of south latitude in the neighbourhood of Mitre Rock, together with the territory lying south of a line from Mitre Rock, proceeding along the said 8th parallel to the 147th degree of east longitude; then in a straight line in a north-westerly direction to the point of intersection of the 6th parallel of south latitude and of the 144th degree of east longitude, and continuing in a west-north-westerly direction to the point of intersection of the 5th parallel of south latitude and of the 141st degree of east longitude, together with the Trobriand, Woodlark, D'Entrecasteaux, and Louisiade groups of Islands, and all other islands lying between the 8th and 12th parallels of south latitude and between the 141st and 155th degrees of east longitude, and not forming part of the colony of Queensland; and furthermore including all islands and reefs lying in the Gulf of Papua to the northward of the 8th parallel of south latitude."

The Government is vested in the Administrator and an Executive Council, and the finances are supplied by a sum not exceeding £15,000 per annum, for which the colony of Queensland has made itself responsible. Victoria and New South Wales have agreed to contribute equally with Queensland towards this amount. Local revenue is applied in reduction of the sums payable by the contributing colonies, and any credit balance in the appropriation account must be written off at the end of the year.

Gold.—Exports of gold are reported as 334¾ oz., value £1,209 17s. 6d. A much larger quantity, however, is known to have left the possession, although it is impossible to obtain accurate data on the point. The Customs (Cooktown, Queensland) record, as received from the Louisiade Gold-field, 3,850oz., value £14,387. All the gold was obtained from the islands of Sudest and St. Aignan, where mining began about the time the sovereignty was declared. The number of miners on the field has varied considerably, the maximum being about 800 men. Towards the end of the period the fields appeared to be getting worked out. Sources of Local Revenue.—Customs, £2,419; gold-fields, £188; fees, fines, &c., £30; miscellaneous, £43. Heads of Expenditure.—Salaries, £2,634; temporary and special services, £2,092; vessels £2,641; stores, £512; miscellaneous (including travelling expenses and mail service), £2,891. Missions.—London Missionary Society.—Mission staff, 111, of whom ten are European; stations occupied, 50; church members, 500; children in schools, 3,500. There is also a Roman Catholic mission, with a staff of twenty, directed by Archbishop Navarre.

[1] For latest information respecting the population of several of the colonies, see footnotes to Table I. post.

[2] The Revenue and Expenditure of Victoria in all the years specified, and of Queensland for the seven years 1876 to 1882 are for the twelve months ended 30th June. In other instances the information relates to the years ended 31st December. For later information respecting Victoria, see footnote (2) to Table IV., and footnote (1) to Table V. post.

[3] For later information respecting the Public Debts of some of the colonies, also respecting the "Accrued Sinking Fund of New Zealand," see General Note and also footnote (9) to Table VII., post

[4] The figures relating to the Railways of Victoria for the last six years, and those of New South Wales for the last two years, those for Queensland and South Australia for the last year, relate to the financial year ended 30th June; those for New Zealand Railways for the last five years are for the twelve months ended 31st March of the year following; in all other cases the figures relate to the calendar year. The figures for Western Australia relate to Government lines only, until 1886, since which year private lines also are included.
